

2018 APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL YOUTH CONTEST & COMMUNITY ART SHOW

Theme:

“Home is Where You Blossom”

Students should create art work that focuses on creative depictions of their ideas about how they view their home or community in the spring.

A panel of representatives from the art community will choose winners. Winning art will be selected based upon creativity, content, technique, and relationship to the message. Each category will be judged separately.

Categories:

☀ Drawing

☀ Painting

☀ Photography

☀ Poetry Contest (7-12th grades)

Guidelines and Rules:

1. Open to all Pike County students enrolled in grades 4-12.
2. Any two-dimensional format is acceptable, including paint, watercolor, marker, crayon, collage, photography or a combination of those formats. Three-dimensional art work will not be accepted.
3. Each student can submit ONLY one entry.
4. Art work must be original and not violate U.S. copyright law.
6. Entries must be framed or ready to be hung.

Submission Rules:
